What A REVERSE!-Last spring a Mr. Bateman, of Kanawha county, Va., emigrafetter in the world, although his circum stations in Virginia, were very comfortable. When he reached his Texas home some of his servants died, and sickness in family so operated upon his mind that he concluded to return to Virginia. On the way, himself, wife and five children fell victims to cholera and other diseases, and found graves upon the banks of the Missisalppi. At Memphis the remaining children were left to shift for themselves, and but a few days since reachhome again, with the little remnant of sevtheir property,--- Lou. Dem.

BETH, daughter of Dr. P. Carpenter, of this Havana. She brings no news of importance. al, and moral developements exhibited a mind superior to many of her age. A prominent feature in her character, was a most ardent affection for, and attachment to her parents and friends. This was so strong that nought but gentle force would separate her from her dying mother, who but two weeks previous to her death had been called to the spirit world. Thus she became a universal favorite with all who knew her. She suffered much in her last sickness, and in the midst of suffering was often heard commend-ing her soul to her blessed Saviour, until death come to her relief, when she ceased on earth to suffer; and we have no doubt arose to Heaven to live forever. The Pork Trade.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of the 18th instant, contains the following items of news Down to Monday evening there had been 124,756 hogs killed at Louisville: 17,200 at Jeffersonville: 13,500 at New Albany: At the latter place they expected to pack 35, 000 in all; at Beardatown, fil , they will pack 30,000; at Springfield, probably 20,000.
About 8,000 live hogs have been shipped by other parties, by the Alton and Springfield railroad. The bogs, though a trifle less in average weights than last year, will amount to somewhat more in the aggregate.

At Peoria III., some 40,000 head will be pucked; the Press says of this 27,000 have been contracted for, at an average of $5,25. At Madison, on Tuesday morning, the market was active, more buyers than sellers, at 86,25. At Pittsburg, on the 11th, 10,000 head were sold at 86,75. In Cincinnati, fine hogs are bringing 87.
